

Video Lending Library

HIV/AIDS Program

400 Yesler Way, 3rd Fl.

Seattle, WA 98104

kingcounty.gov/health/apu

hivstd.info@metrokc.gov

New 3 Girls I know. 2004, 54 minutes, DVD. This documentary focuses on the lives of three young women to examine teen sexuality, pregnancy and HIV/AIDS. Ari, Maggie and Tishaun, tell achingly familiar stories as they describe their experiences of growing up, fitting in, finding friends and lovers, figuring out who they are, and keeping true to themselves. Each generously shares her own choices and the consequences that have shaped her life today as a young adult. Developed for teen age girls and young adults.

New A Closer Walk. 2006, 85 minutes, DVD. This documentary explores the intricate relationship between health, dignity, and human rights, and shows how the harsh realities of AIDS in the world are an expression of the way the world really is. Narrated by Glenn Close and Will Smith. Interviews include the Dalai Lama, Kofi Annon, and Bono. Breathtaking cinematography celebrates human dignity even as it bears witness to immense human suffering. Expect strong emotional responses from your audience including crying with this video. Some people may be unable to watch the entire video. Developed for teen through adult audiences.

New Age of AIDS, The. 2006, 240 minutes (2 two hour segments), DVD 2 copies. An educational and moving documentary that examines the first 25 years of AIDS showing how and why humanity has failed to stop the spread of HIV. Twenty-five years after the first reported cases, Frontline presents this PBS special with Bono, President Clinton, Dr. David Ho, and dozens of prominent AIDS activists, policymakers, and scientists. Filmed in 19 countries, this epic series chronicles the scientific breakthroughs, political struggles, and human costs of the AIDS pandemic. Developed for all audiences.

Blood Lines. 2002, 22 minutes, VHS. This documentary presents a view into the souls of HIV+ youth. A prevention oriented portrait of young people who were teens when they became infected. They candidly share grief, confusion and hope. Useful for teens through adults.

Coming to Life. 1999, 30 minutes, VHS. Contains stories of hope, healing and HIV. This documentary looks at issues surrounding HIV: drugs, sex, tattooing, prison, alcohol, recovery, change, hope, shame and love. Developed for an African American audience.

HIV/AIDS & African Americans. 1999, 12 minutes, VHS. This short video examines the impact of HIV/AIDS on the African American community. The bold graphics and statistics stand out to any viewing audience. Developed for all audiences.

Kevin's Room. 2001, 75 minutes, VHS. African American MSM are brought together by an empowerment group. Produced by the Chicago Department of Public Health. Entertaining but a bit long. Deals with difficult issues including HIV, trust, testing, relationships and brothers on the down low. Useful for MSM and bi-men.

New

Out of Control: AIDS in Black America. 2006, 51 minutes, DVD. In this ABC "Primetime" news documentary Peter Jennings and others examine the AIDS epidemic in African Americans today. It looks at several key factors that contribute to the spread of AIDS in black America. Developed for all audiences.

Pandemic: Facing AIDS. 2002, 42 minutes, VHS. Narrated by Elton John, this video looks at the lives of five people around the world (Uganda, Russia, Brazil, Thailand and India). It's very moving as it shows the suffering some people must endure. Expect strong emotional responses from your audience including crying with this video. Some people may be unable to watch the entire video. Developed for teen through adult audiences.

Race: the Power of an Illusion. 2003, 58 minutes for each section of this 3 part video, VHS. This series challenges one of our most fundamental beliefs: that human beings come divided into a few distinct groups. Each section is an eye-opening tale of how what we assume to be normal, common-sensical, even scientific, is actually shaped by our history, social institutions, and cultural beliefs. Part 1. The Difference Between Us. Part 2. The Story We Tell. Part 3. The House We Live In. Useful for all audiences.

Sexual Responsibility. 2001, 21 minutes, VHS. What are the far-reaching consequences of becoming a teen father? What does it feel like to be a teen facing death from AIDS? These are the issues two high school teens must grapple with. Entertaining, dramatic, and educational for young people. Designed for teens through adults.

Sisters' Keeper. 1999, 30 minutes, VHS. An African American woman shares her stories of hope and support while facing HIV and AIDS. Produced by the NAACP. Designed for all audiences.

Who will speak for me? 2004, 33 minutes, VHS. This locally-produced video breaks the silence in the faith community about HIV/AIDS among people of African descent and encourages healthy discussion about the disease. Produced by African American Reach and Teach Health Ministry (AARTH) and UW AIDS Education & Training Center. Designed for all audiences.

Women and AIDS in America. 2003, 22 minutes, VHS. This moving video explores the rapid increase of AIDS in women in the USA. Produced for the Kaiser Family Foundation by Moxie Firecracker Films. Developed for all audiences.